

Very happy , a very late finish today , I have my rest going and can't wait for tomorrow. Tomorrow you are playing the finals at a different level, do you think it's going to be easier than tonight's match? No finals are easy and he is younger, he is not what his ranking is, he is obviously up the ranking, there have been tough players this week so tomorrow I'll play even better than today . Definitely a great win today but its another set tomorrow.
